

National Law Journal Award

J. NOAH HAGEY

2020 Winning Litigator

---

“Strive to find the human story embedded within a commercial case.”

---

BHB is pleased to announce that co-founding Partner Noah Hagey has been named by the National Law Journal as one of 2020’s most revered “Winning Litigators.”

Noah earned back-to-back trial awards, including a $54 million federal antitrust jury verdict for Orion Telescopes, and served as lead trial counsel in a $16 million hedge fund fraud judgment. Noah also obtained multiple victories in false advertising class actions and trade secrets litigation.

---

“The award goes to our entire litigation team who achieves extraordinary results year-after-year. There is no other boutique in the country with such breadth of success across multiple industries and practice disciplines.”

BHB Partner Matt Borden remarked, “We are proud to see Noah recognized amongst the National Law Journal’s esteemed recipients. He is an unrelenting courtroom strategist.”

The award from NLJ is just one of many recognizing Noah’s courtroom success, including ALM’s “Litigator of the Week” and designation as one of California’s leading commercial litigators by SuperLawyers.

---

BraunHagey & Borden LLP is a high stakes litigation and corporate boutique with offices in San Francisco and New York. We work with discerning clients in bet-the-company disputes and transactional matters. The firm also actively pursues pro bono and impact litigation in cases that make a significant positive impact in the world. For more information, visit our website.